Liability Release

Every entrant, guest and spectator will assume responsibility for any damages, losses, illness or injury while at or in route to or from the show. The Round Valley High School or anybody associated with Chrome in the Dome Inc. or its sponsors will not be liable for any damages, losses, illness or injury, to your persons and property. Every person that enters the dome (entrant, guest, vendor, participant and spectator) does so by their own free will. We ask that only True Working Service Dogs be allowed in the building. Those owners that do bring any animal, invited or not, will be responsible for their animal and the animal's actions. No alcohol, marijuana (in any form), fire arms, smoking or dogs or any animal are permitted in the dome. No use of tire and wheel cleaners inside the dome. If you have any leaks or spills on the floor please let us know ASAP, so we can get it cleaned up. Please follow instructions while driving and parking in the dome. The dome is not a race track. Drive with extreme caution and appropriately. Once parked, no playing stereos or starting engines. All vehicles will park over an oil mat. Exhaust can not rest on the floor. Any damages (melting or tears) to the floor will be your responsibility. By signing this document means you have read, understood and accepted these terms and conditions.
